THEME: "Understanding the Process"

Mark your calendar for this year's 2014 Government Procurement Conference. This premier event will be a great opportunity for small businesses to network and learn more about the process of selling to government agencies and to their prime contractors. Please watch for more information in the coming weeks.

If you are interested in becoming a sponsor at this year's event, please contact Natalie Burden at nburden@uta.edu or 817-272-0543. There are still many sponsorship opportunities available.
