Public invited to meeting about environmental restoration at Fort Wingate Depot Activity

FORT WORTH, Texas -- The public is invited to attend the next Fort Wingate Depot Activity Community, Restoration Advisory Board Meeting Wednesday, March 16 at 5 p.m., in the Federal Building Conference Room at 301 West Hill, Gallup, N.M.

The Fort Wingate Community meetings act as a forum for the review of environmental restoration actions associated with Base Realignment and Closure activities. The intention of the meetings is to promote community awareness by inviting the public to comment throughout the restoration process.

The meeting will include a summary of environmental restoration activities at FWDA, an explanation of the New Mexico Environment Department Process for RCRA Permit and Corrective Actions at FWDA and a representative from TPL, Inc. will discuss the company and what they do.

For further information about the environmental restoration, please write or call Larry Fisher, Tooele Army Depot, Environmental Office, ATTN: SOSTE-CS-EO, Building T-8, Tooele, Utah 84074-5002, (435) 833-3257.
